Tim Mathews leading the way for Freddie McGhee.

The Trojans first season as a team was besiged with problems that were certain to cause trouble – a new school, new coaching staff, unacquainted players and injuries. Nevertheless, everything worked out, except the injuries.

The coaching staff, headed by Norman Faircloth and Rudolph Lumpkin, was the best any team could have. They introduced a new offensive set-up which was a combination of the plays used previously at the now defunct Fort Valley and Hunt High schools. The players, who worked hard all through the year, picked up the new system quickly. In an interview with a newspaper that loves Fort Valley, mentor Faircloth commented that this team had the best potential of any team he'd ever have. But the AAA network, together with injuries which resulted in a lack of depth, proved to be the downfall of Troy.

The first game, against the notorious Warner Robins Demons, was racked with jittery players and tense moments. The Demons scored a TD in each of the first three quarters; however, the Trojans pride could not allow a shutdown. On the strength of two fourth quarter pass interceptions by Donald McGhee, our warriors rallied well. However, the clock ran out, and we lost 19-16.

Things were pretty bright though Peach Countians knew that our players could bravely cope with any AAA team and returned to stun Northside with a 20-12 defeat. But this also marked the point where the fall of Troy started – a limb of Steve Johnson broken; Jeffrey Bennett sustained a spongy knee. Then L. A. Douglass broke his hand.

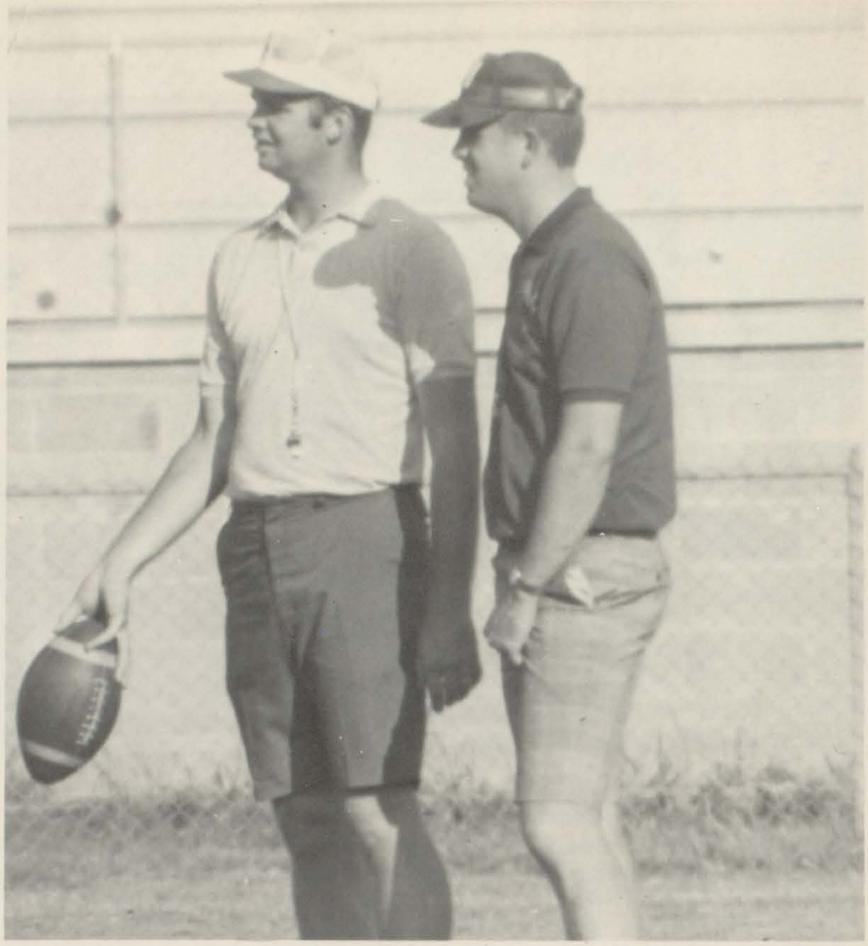
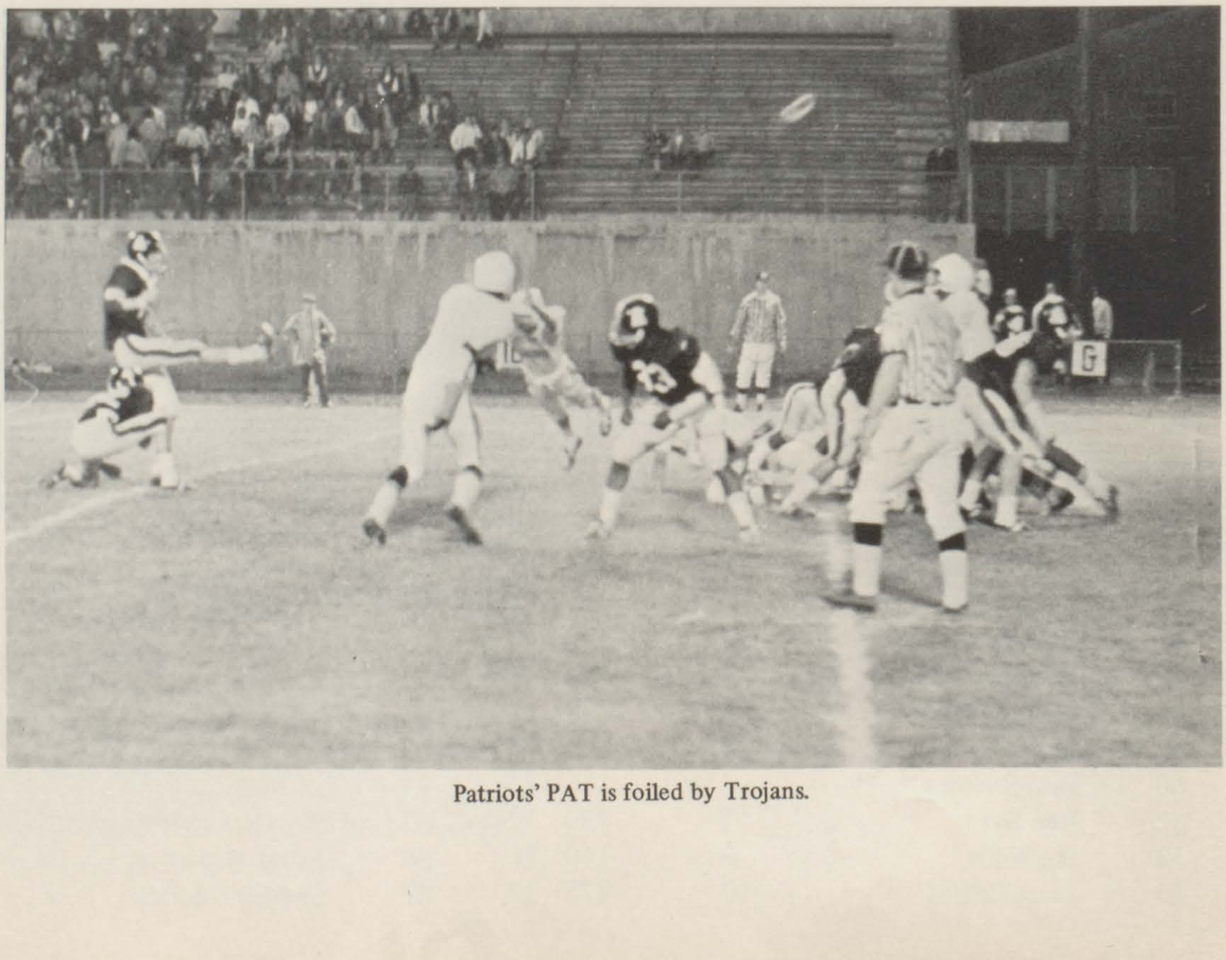
In quick succession, during the season, followed Leon Collins, Donnie McCrary, Issac Mitchell, William Benjamin, Ken Byrd, Alfred Edwards, Larry Tucker, Willie Woods, and Archie Robinson all sustained blows. Some returned, some didn't. The survivors though, performed brilliantly and even though many people don't realize it, only two teams scored over 20 points against our defense.

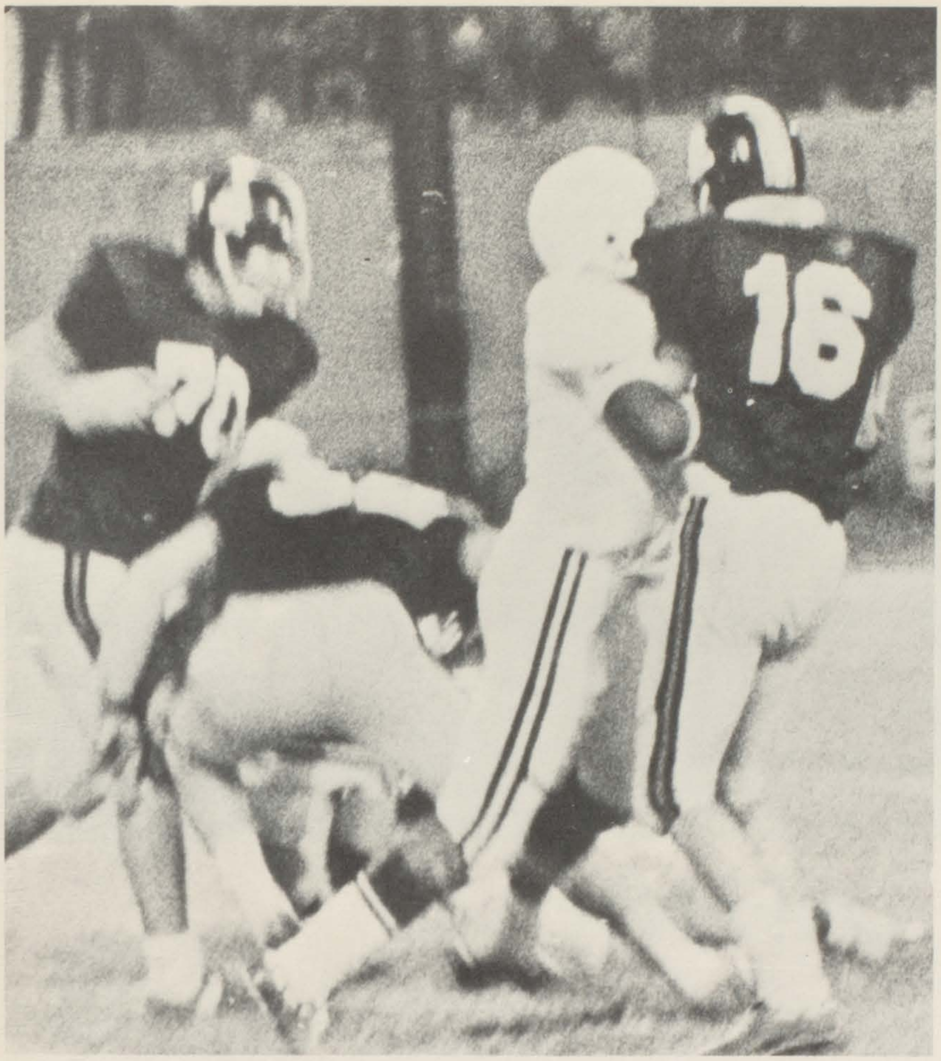
The clash between Peach County and Central started out interestingly. The first half, which provided the Trojans with two scoring opportunities saw Peach County behind by only one point, 7-6. But lack of depth, and fresh Central linemen, were the ingredients for a very shocking score 35-6.



Our coaches are great ball-handlers.

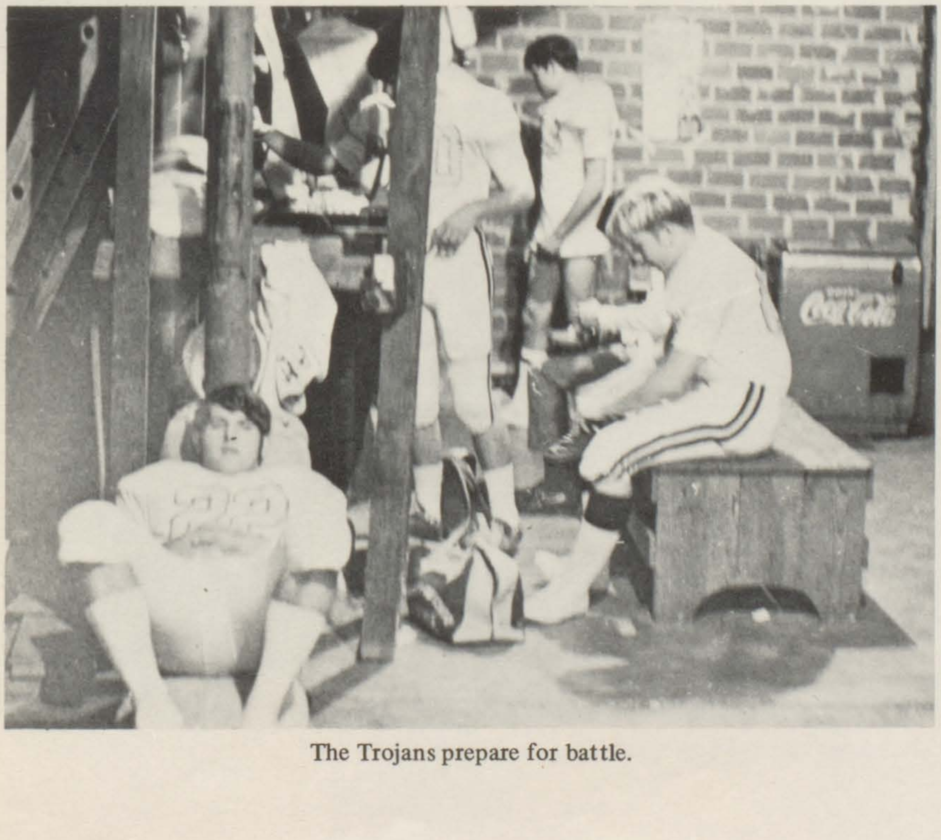


Patriots' PAT is foiled by Trojans.



Pete does his "Thing"

Glin (Bama) Mabry hauls one in.



The Trojans prepare for battle.

The Trojans then limped into Panther Country (Americus) and got soundly stomped 27-14. One bright point was the brilliance of Alvin Brown, who unloaded two bombs to Donald McGhee and Charles Johnson, nuff said.

With hope in the wings and a week's rest, the Trojans marched into Anderson Field – they came, they saw, and conquered Spencer and the referees.

The record was then 2-3, and the Peach County daddys had the extra incentive of evening up the record.

DEFENSE

OFFENSE

A hard fought battle ensued, and when the dust and elbows cleared the score deadlocked at 14-14 against Southwest.

Bad refs at Hardaway beat us 6-0. Then, in the season finale, a charged up Trojan team, at half strength, soundly trounced the Greyhounds in everything except the score. Line hustle, defensive pursuit, 170 yards rushing by Freddie McGhee, and 101 yards (!) on 24 carries by Tim Mathews all led to a victory that a lot of seniors will remember for a long time.

Final Record – 3-6-1.

TD?

Because We the Seniors of '71 Are What We Are . . .

I There are no hopeless situations, only men who grow hopeless over them.

II It is hard to make it in life without friends.

III Satisfaction is doing your best, not just better than someone else.

IV You can life with others when you can't live with yourself.

V Friends are friends and no color in the world changes that.

VI Teachers are easier to get along with, if you try to understand their point of view.

VII With responsibility comes privilege and with privilege comes responsibility.

VIII The ability to learn is not measured by one's race, but by each individual's potential.

IX Involvement is a necessity in life; we can't expect change overnight; all people must work toward a common goal and strive to reach it.

X By combining schools we can have the best athletes and the best students.

XI Great rewards come only through very hard work.

XII People have to give a little to live in peace.

XIII Be yourself; another face may be worse.

XIV As a senior my life has just begun, and now I must take the opportunities offered or become a simple person in a complex society.

XV Girls restroom has a three minute limit.

XVI To succeed in schools, you have to come once in a while.

XVII I have learned that "Black and "White" shouldn't make "Gray", but Love.

XVIII If at first you don't succeed, give up.

XIX You never win with Miss Harrelson.

XX Color is nothing; color is only seen in the mind; feelings make a person, and feeling has no color.

Seniors' Last Will and Testament

Phillip Harris leaves Coach Tommy Fibbe his Afro so that he can look natural . . . Ricky (CH) Parks leaves Burt Luce his cave man suit and a long rope to swing on at the bluff . . . Jeffery Bennett leaves his football shoes to anybody that has baby feet . . . Rogennia Adams leaves her body to science; boy, some lucky girl is gonna get a heck of a transplant . . . Sue Yancey leaves her Algebra I book to anybody who thinks they can keep it longer than she did. (Would you believe 3 years) . . . Susie Galyon leaves a seat in Miss Harrelson's room to anyone that is brave enough to take it, and a class before lunch in Coach Fibbe's room to someone with a strong stomach . . . Alvin Green leaves to Joseph Towns the ability to use atra and Bleach Glo but not sun tan lotion . . . Larry Rowell leaves his supply of super-sauce to Steve Cox . . . Fredrick Cornelious wills the Seniors of "71" the ability not to be the Seniors of "72" . . . Marian Cobb wills her fat to the lunchroom so that there will always be enough meat . . . Billy Duncan leaves to Scooter Massey the uncanny ability to play only the final seconds of football games . . . Tommy Adkinson leaves Miss Ann Harrelson and her term papers, gladly . . . Leon (Hammer Deacon) Jones will leave his ability to play basketball to Peach County High . . . Pamela Adams wills to Donald McCrary the mind of a GENIUS . . . Wanda Jackson wills to Pamela and Connie her seat in Senior English, which she is sure they will cherish . . . Tavie Cleveland leaves her ability to get exempt from Senior English to her brother, David . . . Karen Bowden would leave her figure, but she wouldn't have any fun without it . . . Alan Whatley leaves the railroad tracks to anyone who likes to drive on them . . . Ann Marshall, Lisa Middlebrooks, and Donna Walker leave their extraordinary ability to get hysterical in Coach Fibbe's class to any new students willing to attempt to pass in Economics . . . Donna Walker leaves some patience to Miss Bell, since she used up all of hers . . . Glin Mabry leaves his ability to get into trouble to anyone that can handle it . . . Benny Grigs, Jimmy Mason, Alan Whatley, and Mark Hopkins leave the ability to leave school, eat a burger at the Freeze, and be back at school by the time the bell rings to anyone that can do it . . . Gus Oglesby wills to all the oncoming senior boys his ability . . . Robert Ross wills Reginald Ross, Issac Mitchell, and Gregory Small the ability to stand on their feet and not on their heads . . . Genell Rouse wills to Edgar Lee Rouse the desire to find a job, so that he will stop bumming . . . Katrina Simmons wills to Gary Simmons a bucket of ice so that he will always be able to maintain his cool . . . Dianne Snead leaves to all the girls the ability to keep a SECRET and to keep your private life PRIVATE . . . Greg Whitley leaves his clear thinking ability to Bobby Callihan – he doesn't use it and Bobby needs it . . . Ricky Hammock leaves his ability to fuss with Mrs. Brown in study hall to David Bohannon; he will need it . . . Sylvia Green wills to Sharon Small the ability to wear a size 5 shoe, so that her boyfriend will stop stepping on her big feet . . . Leon Collins leaves editorship of the annual to anyone gullible enough to take it . . . Harold Morse leaves his blazing speed to Larry Tucker, in hopes that "AAA" ball might be easier to run from . . . Ken Byrd leaves one pint of All-American blood to anyone that wants to be an All-American . . . Patricia Brinson leaves to all cheese-eaters of Peach County High a year's contract to Kraft Cheese Company . . . Roy Hampton wills to all the boys the ability to be a great lover like him . . . Glinda Jackson wills to Randy King 40¢ for lunch to keep him from eating off charity . . . Mark Hopkins leaves his College Algebra book to Miss Bell since he doesn't know what to do with it . . . Charlie Wilson leaves Joe Turner his place to cut classes – the office . . . Mack Martin would leave something, but what he has nobody wants . . . William Anderson leaves Miss Harrelson his "Happiness" . . .

THE SENIOR CLASS LEAVES, FINALLY!

Editor's Epilogue

The 1970-71 Key Club has had the privilege of preparing the first annual of the new Peach County High School. We have earnestly attempted to produce an annual worthy of the tremendous efforts that have been put forth by teachers and pupils alike to establish an exceptional school in the face of many changes. Just as the entire school has worked together to meet this challenge, this annual is a combination of the talents, ideas, and initiative of each staff member.

The staff would like to thank Mr. Bob McClendon and Mr. Ike Boyette for their guidance and assistance. We also appreciate the generosity of Mr. Joe Luce in permitting us to use his film developing equipment thereby enabling us to provide many more photographs than would have otherwise been possible. Our thanks also go to the parents and teachers for their assistance and understanding tolerance.

Because of a late start, the annual staff was forced to work at a strenuous pace – sometimes far into the night – to meet publication deadlines. I want to express my admiration and appreciation to the members of this group for their great spirit of cooperation and enthusiasm throughout the many weeks of preparation.

It is the sincere hope of the staff that this annual will be a retrospect of many satisfying memories of this significant year.
